DUCEY TO CORRIGAN

BREACH BETWEEN THE PRIEST AND ARCHBISHOP WIDENING.

Former Makes a Caustic Reply to His Excellency and Rev. Mr. Newey, and Also Indulges in Instauations.

ACTION TO BE TAKEN TO-DAY

COUNCIL OF THE ARCHDIOCESE TO CONSIDER THE QUARREL.

The Trouble Due to an Order Warning Ducey to Keep Away from the Lexow Committee Hearings.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6 .- The controversy between Archbishop Corrigan and Rev. Father Ducey has reached that stage when another statement has been deemed expedient by the latter. Notwithstanding the Archbishop's injunction, Father Ducey continues to be a conspicuous figure at the Lexow committee investigation. This evening he gave out the following statements: "The gentlemen of the press are very familiar with the methods that go at Madison avenue. I do not say on what corner I locate these methods. I greatly regret to be obliged to allude to Madison avenue, but when one is kept like a cathedral window, constantly in the gridiron, self-preservation forces one to cry out: 'We are very rotten in New York.'

"The Ray. Mr. Newey is decent enough to speak as the Rev. Mr. Newey. He is not evidently willing to act the part of a guer-rilla assassin. It is very painful to the American public to have the press of New York give prominence to attacks on personal character anonymously made as coming from persons who sign themselves as 'Catholic laymen,' 'Distinguished ec-'Catholic laymen,' 'Distisguished ec-clesiasts,' 'Very near the Archbishop,' 'A person that knows the mind of the Archbishop, etc., etc. His Excellency, the Arch-bishop of New York, is greatly to be pitied, for the course followed by men who claim to be his friends and defenders. It is sad to think that the Archbishop, who has the ment, of any ecclesiastic in the world should need defenders. He would not need them did he act independently, fearlessly and openly. The Rev. Mr. Newey is the acting secretary of Archbishop Corrigan in the absence of the Rev. Mr. Connolly. The Rev. Mr. Newey, however, does not state that Archbishop Corrigan has requested him to speak for the Archbishop of New York.

"I cannot be tempted into an ex-posure of Archbishop Corrigan's second letter to me through the alleged utterances of his Grace and his secretary. Father Newey. It seems to me, should I etter marked 'private' on such evidence as I have now in my possession, I would be judged a violator of good form and

"Archbishop Corrigan has placed himself a position of persistent persecution of past ten years. Why his Grace e been so misguided I cannot York, and he knows that he owes From his coming to this diocese I was kind to him in the extreme, when he was a suppliant and a stranger in New York, as he knows. As coadjutor archbishop, with right of succession, he was unknown and humble in New York. He came to my house almost every week; he rode with me in my carriages and sleighs before my devotion to humanity forced me to rid myself of these vanities. "I was not in all particulars like the young man in the gospels. I could not say that I had kept in perfection the commandments from my youth, without spot or blemish, but I can say, however, that I have been most faithful and sacrificing as a priest, and I have never been a frequenter of disreputable places.

AN INSINUATION. "The Lexow committee is seeking know something of the character of Rosa Bell and her successor, Evelya Bell, at the house on Thirty-sixth street. Inspector Williams and Captain Westervelt might give some ecclesiastical information as to that house to the Senate committee.

"The Rev. Mr. Newey's permission to me to publish Archbishop Corrigan's letter marked private seems a very shallow trap. I am not prepared to be trapped. I still affirm that his Grace, the Most Rev. Archbishop, has not answered my letter of Nov. 27. His second letter of Nov. 24 is not an answer to my first letter. On Nov. 27 I sent his Grace, the Most Rev. Archbishop, the following communication:

Your Excellency-Your letter of Nov M. sent by messenger to my house, was handed to me by my servant at 4:15 p. m. Saturday, when I returned to my residence hence I could not do as you requested. shall respect your Excellency's letter of Nov. 24, which is more kindly than yours of Nov. 14. I must take exception to a few expressions. I never take for granted any supposition without first obtaining As a priest and a gentleman I am bound, in my opinion, to indicate to any one who the person or persons are who may give me a confidence. I would not be a true priest or a man did I indicate to you or others the person or persons who give me confidences, without grievances alleged against me are nded on truth and fact. You know, and God knows, I have been the wronged person. I have never entered into any conspiracy against you or any other man. I have always fought in the open and always tope so to do. Your Excellency cannot be ignorant of the fact that priests at the Cathedral have, by their own letters, given evidence of evil methods. You, it is said are not responsible for their acts, but if they have abused your confidence and imposed on your good nature, why do they defiantly hold on? You cannot blame me if I have reason to complain.

I wish to be frank, and I inform you that I have letters of yours in my pos-session sent me by the New York press requesting that it should say certain things ut me. Your letters are not typewritten, but in your own handwriting. 'During the troublesome times that have passed I have been obliged to be on the de-fensive. I do not think it is fatherly to ieal with priests or laymen as I have been dealt with by others. greatly regret the trouble that has been inaugurated anew in New York. The pacific efforts of the apostolic delegate are, for the present, apparently nullified. I trust that honorable peace will soon reign "On last Monday morning, Dec. 3, I sent this brief note to his Excellency: Your Excellency-You sent me a letter on Nov. 24. I respectfully answered that letter on Nov. 27. I have received no intimation that your Excellency has read my letter of the 27th. I deem it necessary to write these few words, fearing that it would be said that I had not been courteous to my ecclesiastical superior. You have given me no reasons why I should not attend the sessions of the Lexow committee on Monday, and I say to you in my letter of the 27th I have always 'fought in the open day, always hope to do so,' there-fore, I think it prudent, respectful and wise that I should inform you that I am going to the Lexow investigation on Monday." Father Ducey said that he had nothing further to say at present on the subject.

FATHER DUCEY'S CASE.

To Be Considered by the Council of the Archdiocese of New York. NEW YORK, Dec. 6 .- The council of the archdiocese of New York will meet Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the archepiscopal palace at the corner of Madison avenue and Fiftieth street. Archbishop Corrigan will preside. This will be the most important meeting held in several years owing to the serious matters upon which the council will be asked to act. Among other matters to be considered will be Futher Ducey's defiance of the Archbishop's order to remain away from the meetings of the Lexow committee. As matters now stand Father Ducey is charged with open defiance of the Archbishop's orders to remain away from the meetings of the Lexow committee. His attendance was looked on by friends of both the Archbishop and him-orders from ecclesiastical authority. Rev. Wright Gets a New Trial.

in the Olympic Club Arena.

Maber glove contest took place in the arena of the Olympic Club to-night, in the presence of the smallest number of spectators that ever assembled in the club on a prize-fight occasion. The men fought for a purse of $1,500, of which $200 was to go to the loser. The men entered the ring about 9:15 o'clock. The fight from start to finish was a mixture of boxing, wrestling

and talking, with more than the usual amount of tongue lashing, which the principals gave each other. Each lick seemed to be accompanied by a curse, and in the twenty-fourth round the men were wrestling so fiercely that the referee had to separate them. From a scientific point of view the affair was a fizzle, and the ring in which the men fought was plowed up to such an extent as to make the audience believe the men had been fighting a week.

Maber was taller than his opponent and should have won the battle, though he seemed to lack the physical form necessary to do so. In the twenty-fifth round Maber.

being forced down in a clinch, took several seconds on the floor, and after arising the men wrestled a little bit more. At the end of the twenty-fifth round referee Duffy's de-cision declaring the fight a draw was re-ceived with rounds of applause.

who had followed the progress of the case.

total score is now: Ives, 2,400; Schaefer, closed. To-night he added 53 to his 281, making a total run of 334. Later in the game he made a run of 359, breaking the record for the second time. Aside from this one run of Ives's, Schaefer played the better game. He had a good lead, and was putting up a strong game when Ives settled matters by making his big run. At the re-

Currency Scheme. WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 .- Secretary Carlisle is to be invited before the House committee on banking and currency next Monday morning to present his views concerning the financial plan briefly summarized in his annual report, and indorsed in the President's message. The Secretary was at the Capitol to-day and saw Speaker Crisp and a number of the leaders. It is said, however, he is not as yet seeking to urge his plan. A meeting of the banking and currency committee has been called for to-morrow to begin consideration of the Carlisle plan. It is expected that after the hearing of the Secretary Monday a bill will be drawn in accordance with his views. It is thought probable that Mr. Carlisle will himself raw the bill on the lines of his report. Many of the House leaders declare that Mr. Springer, chairman of the committee. akes this view. He says the subject has been thoroughly discussed in committee so that there should be no delay there. He hardly hopes that the measure will pass the Senate and become a law, but he sees no reason why the House cannot act. Representative Cox, of Tennessee, who led the State bank forces at the last session, is also hopeful of action. Representative Warner, of New York, who has taken a eading part in the State bank discussion. thinks it will be possible to get a bill through the House this session, but not through the Senate.

BANK RECEIVERS.

Bill to Amend the Law Regarding Their Appointment.

Dewitt Warner, of New York, has introduced in the House a bill to amend the law of June 1, 1875, regarding the appointment of receivers of national banks. It provides that when banking associations are placed in receivers' hands, and when the Controller of the Currency has paid to creditors (not including shareholders who are creditors) whose claims shall have been proved, the full amount of such claims, and the redemption of circulating notes has been provided for, the Controller shall call a meeting of the shareholders, at which they shall elect an agent. When this agent has received votes representing at least a majority of the stock in value and number of shares, and when the shareholders have executed a bond for the discharge of all claims thereafter proved against the association, the Controller and the receiver are to transfer to the agent all undivided or all uncollected or other assets and property of the association then remaining in their hands. The Controller and receiver shall thereupon be discharged from all liabilities to the association and to its creditors and shareholders, and the agent is authorized to finally settle and distribute the property in his hands tinction The Indians at the agency in South Dakota are strongly commended by Agent J. G. Wright, whose report indicates a material advancement in civilization during the year. The practice of issuing full treaty rations, however, is deprecated as preventing greater efforts in the direction of selfsupport. Many, says the agent, would accept money value in lieu of supplies, and store cl the change would undoubtedly result in ad-vancement, as the insufficiency of the money Arnsthal.

allowance would operate toward greater efforts in their own behalf. The construction of a boarding house near the agency proper, on Rosebud craek, is recommended.

The appearance of the reservation of the Sisseton agency is officially characterized as that of a broken down business enterprise. This state of affairs, says Agent Kelprise. This state of affairs, says Agent Kellar in his review of the year, is adjudged a great mistake, since the Sissetons are recognized as more advanced in civilization than most Western tribes, and require more care and judgment in the management of their affairs. The exemption of their lands from taxation is regarded as a detriment rather than a benefit.

The total failures of all crops and vegetables, owing to the dry season, has struck a serious blow to these Indians, the Yankton tribe in South Dakota being reported in a sorrowful plight on account of the most disastrous crop year experienced since the occupancy of the reservation. Few of the Yanktons are free from disease. The work of the missionaries has resulted in the peaceful and law-abiding spirit shown by the Indians.

Military Park: "Be it enacted that a national dedica-tion of the Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Military Park shall take place on the battle fields of Chickamauga and Chattanooga, Sept. 19 and 20, 1895, under the direction of the Secretary of War, who is hereby authorized to fix upon and determine the arrangements, ceremonies and exercises connected with the dedication; to request the participation of the President, Congress, the Supreme Court, the heads of executive departments, the generals of the army and the admirals of the navy therein; to invite the Governors of States and their staffs and the survivors of the several armies there engaged, and have di-rections and full authority in all matters which he may deem necessary to the success of the dedication. He shall have authority to procure such supplies and services and to call upon the heads of the several staff departments of the army for material and stores as he may deem neces-sary in connection with the dedication. Advice to Woud-Be Contestants. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 .- The Republican congressional committee has advised the most conservative action by all intending to contest. It has recently sent out strong letter to all Republicans who contemplated contests urging them not to enter on the struggle except upon the most indisputable evidence of fraud or illegalities. It has received notice of nearly thirty districts where Republicans were anxious to appeal to the next House for their seats, and in all but about twelve or fourteen it has advised practical abandonment of the effort. In every case the contestant has ben urged to gather his evidence as carefully and as incontestably as though he were appealing to a House with a majority of opposite politics. In some cases an intimation has been added that Mr. Reed is not anxious for contests. It would cause little next session there were one repealing the present very generous lgislation paying expenses of contests.

Cash in the Treasury. WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.-The cash balance in the treasury to-day was $154,727,085, of which $109,560,123 was net gold. This is a loss in gold since yesterday's report of

$1,581,897. The treasury officials offer no explanation of this decrease, but the information comes from New York that during the last three days the subtreasury has several times been obliged to meet demands for gold in exchange for legal tenders, but so far as known here none of the gold withdrawn has yet been exported. The present high rate of sterling exchange (34,884) makes it probable, however, that before the close of the present week con-siderable amounts will be withdrawn for export to France, where the demand just now is greater than in England. treasury officials decline to discuss the probability of extensive withdrawals, but it

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.-The appropriations committee of the House to-day completed the bill making appropriations for the payment of pensions during the fiscal year 1895-96. It carries an appropriation of $141,381,570, as against estimates of $141,581,-570, and an appropriation for the current year of $151,581,570. The only reduction from the estimates was $200,000 on account of fees for examining surgeons. Representative Livingston, of Georgia, from the committee on appropriations, today reported to the House the bill making appropriations for fortifications and other works of defense for the fiscal year 1895-96. The estimates on which the bill is based aggregated $7,357,703, of which sum there is recommended in the bill $1,879,057, being $5,478,646 less than the estimates and $457,946 less than was appropriated by the last fortifications act.

Japanese Treaty Referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.-The Senate was in executive session to-day only long enough to permit the reference of the new Japanese commercial treaty to the committee on foreign relations, which was done without reading. FAMOUS CASE RECALLED

ATTEMPT TO SECURE $80,000 FROM INSURANCE COMPANIES.

Hunting Trip in the Buffalo Mountains and Fruition of a Murderous Scheme.

TUCSON, A. T., Dec. 6 .- Among the Huachucas mountains, at Salvation Army Camp, about forty miles from Tucson, a man has been arrested for whom the authorities have been looking for years. He is John W. Hillmon, and the capture was made by S. W. Finney, a deputy collector of customs at Nogales, and Orren Gemmill, under sheriff of Lajunta. His capture recalls one of the most remarkable cases in the annals of crime. 1a, 1875 Hillmon and two companions, one of them resembling him very closely, took a trip into the Buffalo mountains of Texas to hunt. They were gone several weeks, and when Hillmon and one companion returned the man bearing so striking a resemblance to him failed to accompany them. It seems that Hillmon, who carried an insurance on his life of $80,000, while in the mountains conceived a murderous scheme, and killed in cold blood the man who so closely resembled him. When he returned to the settlement he took the name of the man he had murdered, and said that Hillmon had been accidentally shot, and was buried in the mountains. In due time Mrs. Hillmon made claim to the life insurance companies in which her husband had been in-sured for $80,000. The insurance people became suspicious and began an investiga-The remains of the man whom Hil mon had murdered were exhumed, and it was then discovered that they were not the remains of Hillmon. Mrs. Hillmon insti-tuted legal proceedings in Topeka, Kan., her home, to recover the amount of insurance. The case was carried from on nent for the principal, interest and attorney's fees in the Supreme Court of the United States. According to the order of the court the judgment must be satisfied at the end of this year.

During all this time the insurance com panies have kept detectives on the trail of Hillmon, who disappeared shortly after his wife made claim for the insurance. He was followed to Australia and other foreign countries and a reward of $15,000 was offered for his apprehension, dead or alive

On the 4th of last month Under Sherif Gemmill arrived in this Territory from Colorado and interested Finney in the case, Gemmill having learned that Hillmon was in Sonora. He and Finney took the murderer's trail at Magdalena, Sonora, and followed him to Altara, Sonora, thence to Prescott, A. T., Mexico City, Old Glory Camp, and then to Salvation Army Camp in the Huachucas, where he was arrested Hillmon denied that he was the right man when told by the officers what they wanted him for. He was taken to Tombstone where he is held, pending the arrival of requisition papers from Kansas. Claims to Be Lynn Boyd Herndon. FRANKLIN, Ky., Dec. 6 .- The news to the effect that J. W. Hillmon, who was supposed to have been killed sixteen years ago in Kansas, and under suspicious circumstances, after having taken out a heavy insurance on his life. had been arrested in Arizona, created considerable excitement. Lynn Boyd Herndon is the man arrested in Arizona for this crime. He formerly lived here and is ex-tensively connected in this section. About seventeen years ago, together with his father's family, he moved to Kansas. How long he lived in that State is not known to his relatives here, but it is said that he has traveled for several years. Last night he poured telegrams into his kinsmen at this place, telling of his arrest at Tombstone, Ariz., charged with having defrauded an insurance company of a large sum and probably with the murder of the supposed Hillmon, at Valley Falls, Kan., in 1878. The telegrams were urgent and the relatives of Herndon here are very solicitious about his situation, so much so, in fact, that Dr. J. E. Neely, a relation of his, left for Tombstone to-day to identify Herndon and help him out of his trouble. It is thought that Herndon is the victim of a peculiar chain of circumstances, but his relative not believe him guilty.

W. P. ST. JOHN'S PLAN

LISLE'S CURRENCY SCHEME.

He Would Make Silver Dollars Full

Legal Tender and Issue Coin Certificates Redeemable on Demand.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.-At the Chamber of Commerce to-day, William P. St. John, president of the Mercantile National Bank, said it was officially proposed that Congress provide profit to banks on bank notes by a scheme surrendering a profit of $10,-300,000 a year to the people at large in United States notes. He characterized the scheme as preposterous, and submitted the following plan of relief:

"First-Congress to remove from our standard silver dollars 412.5 grains, 9-10 fne, the single restriction of its legal-tender function and provide unlimited coinage for silver into this dollar, in the terms prescribed for gold.
"Second—Issue to depositors of gold and silver at the mint, if they prefer, instead of the coin to which they are entitled, coin quire these coin certificates to be redeemed in gold or silver coin, at the convenience of the United States. Authorize the Secre-redeem them on request in standard bars of gold or silver.

"Third-Authorize depositors of gold coin and silver coin to receive the proposed coin certificates therefor and forbid all further issuing of gold certificates, silver certificates and treasury notes of 1890.
"Fourth-Until bimetallism is a real achievement under this act, require that all the gold and silver for which coin certifi-

tary of the Treasury in his discretion to cates are issued be reserved in coin and standard bars for their redemption, except as next suggested "Fifth-Authorize the Secretary, in his discretion and under regulations prescribed him, to direct the Treasurer of the United States to receive interest-bearing the United States hysafe amounts thereon proposed coin certificates as the rate of interest on the loans to be the rate of interest on the hypothecated bonds. Limit this 'emergency issue' of coin certificates by the requirement that the aggregate sum of coin and standard bars reserved for their redemption shall not be less at any time than 60 per cent. of the aggregate sum of all coin certificates outstanding. "It is explained that this final provision would be availed of in a real 'emergency' only for the reasons: First, that owners of bonds would not accept long-time loans at a cost of all the interest in their investment, and, second, borrowers of four-per-cent, and five-per-cent. United States bonds, hired to hypothecate for such loans, would appear when only a real emergency made high rates for money in the open market. "If a money market panic threatened the proposed enactment with a sharp contraction of our aggregate of money our final provision would empower the Secretary of the Treasury to issue $200,000,000 of United States coin certificates against silver coin and bullion now in the treasury, and loan them at 4 per cent, and 5 per cent, per annum against United States interest-bearing bonds. If lack of engraved coin certificates threaten the Secretary's immediate convenience I suggest that boldness equaling the recent issuing of interest-bearing bonds will momentarily substitute silver certificates therefor. The proposition and remarks were received without objection and filed without action. The chamber adopted resolutions adverse to any further tariff legislation at present, on the ground that conditions should be allowed to become settled.

TAX COLLECTION

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. timates furnished by the Secretary of the Treasury to Congress are included the following for expenditure in Indiana. It is not likely that the sums recommended for the improvement of rivers and harbors will be appropriated, as a river and harbor bill rarely, if ever, is passed at a short session. The estimates include the following items: Support of and education of sixty Indiana pupils at St. Joseph's Normal School at Rensselaer, $8,330; same at White's Manual Labor School at Wabash, $10,000; improving Amount of Money Necessary to Put WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 .- The appropriations committee received, this afternoon, from the treasury the estimates required to carry the income tax provision of the tariff bill into effect for the remainder of the present fiscal year, beginning Jan. 1, 1895. The estimates for the collection of the tax until July 1, 1895, aggregate $245,095, and include provision for one statistician, $2,500; an additional head of division, $2,500; six clerks, at $1,400; eight clerks, at $1,200 seven clerks, at $1,000, one messenger, at $420; salaries and expenses of 203 additional deputy collectors, $211,800, and salaries and expenses of ten additional revenue agents, 18,000. The appropriation to provide for the collection of the income tax will be incorporated in an urgent deficiency bill, the consideration of which will be ready on Monday and will be immediately passed. The bill will probably precipitate the first general political skirmish of the session. The Eastern members, irrespective of par-

It Is Idleness, According to the Pine

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.-The condition of Ridge Agent's Report.

Pine Ridge Indian Agency, according to Capt. C. G. Penney's annual report, renders their reservation fit only for stock raising. Agriculture cannot furnish a living there because of the altitude and aridity of the section. This condition cannot be remedied by irrigation, and the Indians are beginning to adopt stock raising as a business pursuit. "The besetting sin of the Indians," says the agent, "is idleness. They are incapable of sustained efforts and are shiftless, lazy and irresponsible. They are still given to wandering, and are consumed with a desire to go from agency to agency, making visits. The discipline is good, but the police force should be increased to one hundred men, in order to compel good order, despite the fact that the agent cannot at all times restrain and prevent turbulence. disorder and violence among the people. It is a mistake to send children away from the reservation for the purposes of education. They get a smattering of learning and return out of touch with their people, speedily losing the accomplishments they have acquired. Co-education of the sexes among the Indians is not advisable." The feeling of those on the reservation is outspoken against the taking of lands in severalty, and the agent says the allotment of their lands, as proposed, would result in the degradation of the people and their speedy ex-

Portable Telephone Used by a Doctor to Trap an Alleged Blackmailer. CHICAGO. Dec. 6 .- A peculiar story of case of attorney Charles Ioas, who was held in heavy bonds by United States Commissioner Wirt, charged with sending objectionable letters through the mails. The plaintiff, Dr. Peter Janss, a prominent physician, had for a long time, according to his story, been paying loas varying sums for the suppression of a disagreeable bit of private history, and was finally driven to desperation when his wife received a letter from the lawyer. loas, the Doctor said, frankly admitted writing the letter when no witnesses were present, but denied all knowledge of it when others were the Southern Wheelman, a local bicycle paabout. At last, on the advice of attorney Luther Laffin Mills, Dr. Janss fitted a smail telephone in his silk hat with a slender gold wire trailing behind which connected with a telephone outside the lawyer's of-fice at which, with the two receivers, were stationed a detective and a stenographer. Entering the lawyer's office, Dr. Janss de-clares he easily induced loas to again admit that he had written the letter, and demanded more money. Then Dr. Janss ex-hibited his telephone, explained to the as-tounded lawyer that he had been talking through the Doctor's hat, and, armed with his evidence, secured the arrest. The case tered in the family burying ground near will be tried shortly by the United States
